COMMENT and RUMOR

One of the sincerest "Scouts" Ocean Beach has ever had writes us from San Pedro as follows:

February 20, 1944.

Dear Mr. Hartvigsen:

Enclosed you will find a P.O. money order for the Ocean Beach News. I am still fighting the battle of Terminal Island in San Pedro. I am glad to see that Cubbing and Scouting are on the march again in Ocean Beach and hope they keep it up. Give my regards to all my friends and Scouts in Ocean Beach. I am working with the same troop here. Just finished making a war loan drive in a contest for scouting and we have sold $45,000 worth of bonds. We are all well but wish we were back in Ocean Beach.

Best regards,
—F. DELGADO.

San Diego's new daily is expected to be started about the middle of March, according to subscription solicitors now in the field, and will be published every afternoon except Sunday. Many good features are promised and a good reception is expected from readers and advertising patrons.

There was little damage reported from the heavy rains in Ocean Beach this week we are pleased to report. Some of the business houses were just a little worried when dampness began to show in wall spots or a good sized puddle threatened the back door, but all are believed to have escaped material damage.

Danny Moss says please do not leave any more newspapers on the Newport ave. lot, for between the kids, the dogs, and strong winds they get scattered over the whole beach area. The paper shortage is still on, but you should save them for the Volunteers of America, Goodwill Industries or Salvation Army.

Some time ago politicians said we would be better off when the ordinary citizen became tax conscious. Well, we don't see how any working adult, business concern or professional person can now be anything but "tax conscious" after wrestling with victory tax, surtax, income tax, social security tax, withholding tax, and then trying to hunt up "deductible" items to kind of offset the balance which call for a check to the Collector of Internal Revenue.

It is a patriotic and worthwhile gesture of Bank of America, Ocean Beach branch officials, to allow a booth for registration of voters, to be set up in such a comfortable and central location. Mrs. Juanita Halamude, registrar, too, should be commended for her civic interest in establishing the booth. She reports about two dozen new registrants per day but thinks there should be many more.

According to OPA we should be eating corned beef and cabbage now. Cabbage has been reduced to 2c per lb. in the local market, according to Safeway's adv. this week, and your butcher may be able to furnish the corned beef. This is a hint for Mrs. H. to use up 7 precious points and give us a real banquet of corned beef and cabbage in the near future.

Don Hanson Reports Red Cross Drive Starts March 1st

Faced with the most crucial period in its history, the American Red Cross will call on San Diego city and county to raise $688,000 during the month of March as San Diego's share in the National goal of $200,000,000. Donald E. Hanson, Red Cross War Fund chairman, stated yesterday.

"This quota has been assigned to us by the National Red Cross," Hanson reported, "and it is, therefore, our obligation to strive for its achievement."

Hanson announced that San Diego's city and county drive would open formally on March 1 to coincide with the National kickoff date, but that certain phases of the appeal would not swing into action until March 8.

Point Loma High News

El Portal

Next week sales begin on the 1944 "El Portal," Point Loma high's annual yearbook. This book promises to be the most outstanding issue with a theme of the two Americas and their relationships toward each other. Throughout this year many of the auditorium activity programs have been centered on this theme as well as the everyday classroom activities throughout the entire school. Students are recognizing more and more the importance of an understanding of friendship between North and South America. Pictures for the yearbook are now being made under the supervision of Tom Walt and his students in the photography club and the art staff with Miss Willabee Brodie as director. Students who are assisting include Mary Ann Lodge, Paula DeHaven, Shirley Tuthill, Gwen Harvey, and Wesley Kessel.

Music Department

In the vocal music we find the choir and girls' glee working on the annual Easter concert which occurs Tuesday, April 4th. In the junior glee we are hearing trains of selections being rehearsed for the annual Pan-American program, April 14. In the instrumental music we hear exciting rhythms from the band as they are grooming themselves for a program later in the semester. They recently accompanied the community sing in the Lincoln day assembly program.

Stage Design

Visiting this stage design class we are amazed at the varied activities. We learn this group is responsible for designing, painting and constructing all stage sets for the concentrated auditorium activity programs. Just now we detect designs near completion for a beautiful stained-glass window for the Easter concert; a gorgeously rich Chinese tapestry hanging for a Chinese play; abstract designs for panels to be used as a stage set for an annual ritualistic dance for the Pan-American program; also a street scene drop for a dramatic skit in the Pan-American program.

Speech Arts

Janet Wallace, pleasingly represented Pt. Loma high school in the annual American Legion speaking contest held Sunday, Feb. 20th. While Pt. Loma did not win a place we are most appreciative to Janet for her entry and the splendid manner in which she appeared; she spoke on her original oration "The Rights We Defend."

Dance

Students in the dance classes are ready to concentrate on the dances to be presented for the Pan-American program. These dances will be creative ones depicting the Indian heritages in the Latin-Americans.

We admit a decided leaning toward the Four Arts departments at Pt. Loma this week. These departments are always so active and keep a smooth-running auditorium activities program in our school that we are offering a how of gratitude here. The auditorium serves as the center for the hub of our fine plant—Pt. Loma high school—and we realize the importance the departments play in cementing our student body together toward a democracy. Jim Webber, newly elected commissioner of general affairs, is proving a splendid pre-

Americanization Kiwanis Feature

Robt. Mueller, lieutenant governor San Diego-Imperial county division of Kiwanis International, was present at Ocean Beach Kiwanis club Tuesday evening and presented the local group with a special award from the office of the California-Nevada district headquarters. This award being a decorative ribbon inscribed to show the local club has been highest of the division in gain of membership.

Myron Insko was program chairman and praised the club for its outstanding work in the "Keep America American" program adopted and begun in January and being conducted this week. Insko called upon the enthusiastic promoter of the Americanization program, Burritt S. Mills, for his presentation and completion of the work.

Mills, in an interesting sincere talk, told the members we should be vigilant in protecting the American way of life. That we must be firm in a stand against political power and dictatorship as well as against a worse enemy, economic power. "We must see," he said, "that political power and economic power do not combine to rule the lives of the ordinary citizen," pointing out that if such a thing happened we would all lose the liberties our men have been fighting for. This date Feb. 22nd, 1944, is the 21st birthday of our first president, George Washington, Mills said, and we must strive at this time just as hard to maintain our liberties as our forefathers did in his day.

It was pointed out the multiplication of government bureaus and their waste in literature, orders, and mailing was a distinct hindrance to better government, and these wastes—which also included those by military forces—together with Union rackets of unauthorized strikes and labor restrictions were a sorry mess for the American people to overcome.

Don Beckstead from the department of television and electronics, U.S.C., was a guest of Dr. W. B. Oster. Pfc. George L. Martin of the Coast Guard, was a guest of the club.

Respected Resident Laid At Rest At Glendale

Oscar Meldon Kiess, 61, for more than 10 years a resident at 5137 Muir ave., Ocean Beach, was laid to rest in Forest Lawn Memorial park, Glendale, on Saturday last. Masonic funeral services were held the same day in the Little Church of the Flowers in Glendale.

Deceased took part in civic improvement at Ocean Beach and was highly respected by friends who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

Mr. Kiess was the owner of rental property on the ocean front at foot of Muir ave. He was the husband of Grace Kiess, father of Mrs. F. H. Powers and Dorothy Kiess both of Los Angeles, brother of Mrs. H. R. Fry, of Williamsport, Minn., and Mrs. N. Huffmaster, of San Diego. Member of Sanford L. Collins Lodge No. 396 F.&A.M., Toledo, O.; The Scottish Rite Bodies and Ismailia Shrine Temple of Buffalo, New York.

Siding chairman for the student body gathering. So here's to you, Jim!

LT. KENLINE IN WASHINGTON

February 16, 1944
Dear Heber and Lillian:
I sure was surprised last month to receive a change of orders. Thought I was all set in Red Bank, N. J., for the duration. Although the work in the Signal Corps Standards Agency was very interesting and good experience. My new assignment is with the Selective Service System. I will be here in Washington, D. C., for about 30 days at the national headquarters for general instruction. Then I will be assigned to one of the state headquarters. I haven't the slightest idea which one it will be but hope it is out West. I understand that the work will be investigating technical deferments and will require considerable traveling to the local boards. Sounds like it will be an interesting job and one that will be of some real value in this war. I received a four day leave from Jan. 31st to Feb. 3rd inclusive and helped Edythe move to Wilkinsburg, Penna., so she could be with her sister Mary while I am here in Washington, D. C. After I get located at one of the state headquarters I will send for Edythe.

Have a comfortable room here with one of the other officers in the class. He is from San Bernardino and is a brother Mason. We have been using our free time to see the interesting places in and around Washington, D. C. So far we have seen the Pentagon bldg., Mt. Vernon, Va., Washington monument, the Capitol, Senate and House in session, Smithsonian institution and the Mellon Art museum.

Washington is a busy place these days. Before the war the population was about 600,000. Now it is about 1,500,000. Everywhere one goes there is a crowd and one just stands in line and waits his turn at the restaurants and shows. It certainly will be good to get back to the normal way of living after the war is over. Edythe and I will appreciate our comfortable home more than ever.

Will let you know where I am assigned next month.

As ever
—GEORGE.

Azure Vista People Snow And Rain Active Socially and Close Schools In Red Cross Work Disrupt Power In Los Angeles

A Red Cross silver tea was given in the new community bldg. at the Azure Vista housing project on Sunset Cliffs blvd. on Feb. 17. A large number of ladies attended this, which was the first social affair held in the new community bldg. The purpose of the tea was for the ladies of Azure Vista to become acquainted and to stimulate interest in the organization of a Red Cross unit.

The Junior Red Cross under the sponsorship of Miss Margaret Nickerson, presented a short program. A skit, planned and written by the Azure Vista Junior Red Cross group, was given. The characters were played by Marilyn Nygren, Helen Robinson and Wayne DeBate of Azure Vista school.

A trio composed of two cornets and a clarinet played two numbers. Members of the trio were Jean Fayot, Lyle Fayot and Donald Jones.

The "Tonnettes" played two numbers, which were "Little Brown Jug" and "America." The tonnette group was composed of John Wiggins, Kenneth Meader, Phyllis Jennings, Patty Jones and Helen Robinson.

The Red Cross headquarters ably assisted in the success of the tea by sending as their representative speaker Mrs. Frank A. Weitzel, staff assistant at the Blood Donor center. She gave a short history of the Red Cross and then showed the Red Cross dolls, explaining the duties of each department, or corps.

Other Red Cross representatives who were introduced were Mrs. Fred Payne, production chairman; Mrs. M. A. Schuur, assistant to Mrs. Payne; Mrs. Walter J. Fuelscher, nutrition chairman; Mrs. Helen Stager Poulson, nutrition expert; Mrs. San Francisco; Mrs. LeRoy Barrows, canteen chairman, and Mrs. Nan Couts, director of home service.

Miss Harriet Gould, resident manager of Azure Vista and Miss Sally Henrikson, principal of the grade school, poured tea at a beautifully decorated tea table which was centered with a large bouquet of white stocks.

The tea was planned and given with the help of the activities committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lois Jenkins and those on the project who have been actively engaged in doing some Red Cross work under the leadership of their temporary chairman, Mrs. Doris Davis. They were able to do this with the cooperation of the Civilian Defense under the leadership of Mrs. Rose Haskill and her sector leaders who are Mrs. Dorothy Van Sicklin, Mrs. Dorothy Faucher and Mrs. James Kerr, and block leaders who issued invitations to everyone living on the project, and the '80 Minors girls under the sponsorship of Mrs. Arlene Agnes Carter. They were chairman, Mrs. Doris Davis, Arlene Beck, Barbara Jenkins, Jean Miller, Joyce Simms, Dolores Beck, Kathryn Brannan, Darlene Watson, and Pat Anderson.

Chairman for the tea, Doris Davis; committee chairmen were publicity, Rose Haskill, Mrs. James Kerr, Dorothy Van Sicklin, Dorothy Faucher; decoration, Sara Wittington, Sylvia Doray, child care, Mildred Edward, Keith Dobb; display, Rena Lambert, Dorothy Fox; refreshment, Mayme Morgan, Caroline Zachow, Wilma Dillahunty, Vivian Spencer, Margaret Hunt and Lillian Gosnell.

Announcements were made regarding two important business meetings to be held on Thursday, Feb. 24, at 2:30 p.m. in the community bldg. At this time the organization setup of a Red Cross committee will be explained and a nominating committee will be elected. The second business meeting will be held the following Thursday, March 2, at 2:30 p.m. and the officers will be elected.

Everyone is urged to come!!

Evensong and Pictures Trinity Episcopal Church

Next Sunday, Feb. 27, there is a service of evensong at 7:30 p.m. All people are cordially invited to attend this service, and further to share in the motion picture that follows. The motion pictures are the endeavor of Cathedral films, whose subjects deal with the life of our Lord. The title of the picture will be "The Journey Into Faith." A silver offering will be taken for this service.

Come out and bring your friends. Remember also, that the picture is shown in the morning for the church school, 9:15.

Heavy Rains Slow Traffic And Business

The storm which drenched Southern California for three days burst over San Diego Tuesday afternoon, releasing torrents of wind-whipped rain that turned streets into rivers and crippled transportation services. All airline flights out of San Diego were cancelled, and Santa Fe trains were delayed hours as rising flood waters endangered the coast line near Santa Ana.

The coast highway was cut at Laguna Beach when flood waters four feet deep rolled down from the surrounding hills, carrying one car off the road.

Hail, lightning and thunder accompanied the downpours, which soaked pedestrians, filled gutters, and disrupted some electric power service, cutting off or dimming some lights on the bay side of Pt. Loma.

Telephone lines were disrupted between San Diego and the Laguna mountain area.

Winds reached a velocity of 35 miles an hour, blowing steadily for periods at 28 miles an hour, and their force drove three boats ashore in the yacht basin area on Pt. Loma.

The Santa Fe train leaving San Diego at 4 p.m. was delayed until 5:30, and the train due at 6:15 was delayed at Gallatin, between El Toro and San Juan Capistrano. Santa Fe officials reported, but finally arrived late last night.

Wednesday there was less storm with train and air lines resuming regular schedules.

Thursday (press day for this newspaper) lighter clearing up showers appeared with sunshine scheduled in the afternoon by the weather bureau.

Lehews Sell Home On West Point Loma Blvd.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lehew during the past week have moved to one of their other properties at 4328 Muir ave., having sold their home at 4824 W. Pt. Loma blvd. to Mrs. Margaret Gerow. Mrs. Gerow has two daughters away at school who will join her here in the early summer.

$100,000 Fire Loss San Diego Laundry

A three-alarm fire that was visible for more than five miles early Tuesday morning razed the two-story Sanitary Laundry & Dry Cleaning plant at 472 Sixteenth st., destroyed an adjacent dwelling, burned two tons of hay, and set numerous fires that threatened a conflagration in the southeast section of the city.

High winds fanned the flames that leaped nearly 300 feet high. Firemen were hampered by high tension wires that had been burned off and trailed in the streets. Some of the wires carried 4000 volts of electricity and the power was not shut off until about 3:30 a.m., nearly two hours after the fire had been discovered.

Herman Jacobson, of 4806 Canterbury dr., owner of the plant, estimated the loss would be at least $100,000.

Retired Insurance Man Dies in Home Here

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Christian L. Schachtebeck, 82, who died Sunday in the family home, 4764 W. Point Loma blvd. Rites were at Bonham Bros. funeral chapel with Rev. Orno E. Tyler officiating, under auspices of Point Loma Masonic lodge No. 620.

A native of Bremen, Germany, Mr. Schachtebeck came to the United States in 1882. Before coming to San Diego 22 years ago he was a teller in one of San Francisco's major banks. He retired in 1941.

Mr. Schachtebeck leaves his widow, Mrs. Catherine Johanna Schachtebeck; three sons, Louis C. of Pasadena, Edward H. of San Bernardino and Milton Schachtebeck, of Roseville; six daughters, Mrs. Margaret Wilkins, of Mission Beach, Mrs. Maurice H. Pillsbury, Mrs. Walter Thomas and Mrs. John Warner, all of Berkeley; Mrs. Lyle Dyer, of Salinas and Mrs. Lewis Haynes, of Glendale; a brother, Emil Schachtebeck, and a sister, Mrs. Johanna Tonny, both of Germany. Also surviving are 12 grandchildren.

Soldier Barracks Destroyed by Fire

The small tar paper barracks sheltering an anti-aircraft crew on the southerly side of Mission bay, near Glenn's Drive-in cafe, was destroyed by fire Monday morning when Pfc. Arthur B. Colbin, U.S.A., was washing his leggings with gasoline near an open flame, local firemen report. Colbin suffered second degree burns and was taken to an army hospital for treatment.

BATHROBE CATCHES FIRE

George Armistead, who resides on Pescadero ave., was badly burned, when his bathrobe caught fire from a small electric plate, last Monday. Nearby neighbors rushed in and rolled several small rugs around his body to extinguish the flames. Later he was taken to the county hospital.

Will We Play Cards Or Will City Prohibit?

Final action in banning cardrooms from San Diego was taken by the city council Wednesday when, by a vote of 4 to 3, it passed an ordinance prohibiting all cardrooms except those maintained in qualified clubs.

The ordinance becomes effective March 25, just 31 days after its passage. Wednesday's vote was the same as that cast on first reading of the ordinance Feb. 15. Mayor Harley E. Knox and Councilmen H. De Graff Austin, Ernest J. Bond and Walter W. Austin voted for closing. Councilmen Fred W. Simpson, Paul J. Hartley and Charles C. Dail voted against closing.

It may be caused by disorder of kidney function that permits poisonous waste to accumulate. For truly many people feel tired, weak and miserable when the kidneys fail to remove excess acids and other waste matter from the blood.

You may suffer nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling. Sometimes frequent and scanty urination with smarting and burning is another sign that something is wrong with the kidneys or bladder.

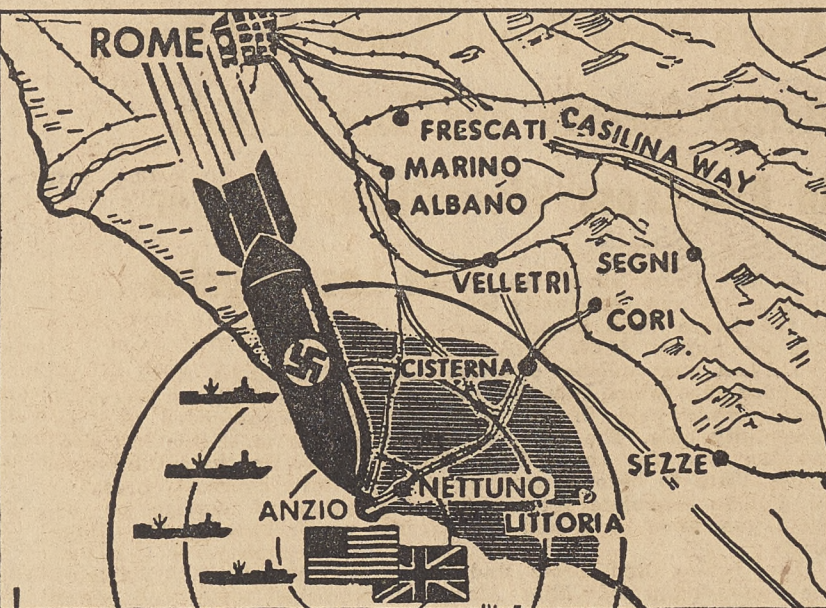

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won country-wide approval than on something less favorably known. Doan's have been tried and tested many years. Are at all drug stores. Get Doan's today.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Nazis Pour Troops Into Anzio Region As Battle for Italy Grows in Ferocity; Senate Studies 'White-Collar' Income; Aussie-U. S. Forces Join in New Guinea

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Italy—First great armored battle of Italy raged near Anzio, where Nazis strove to knock out Allied beachhead.

ITALY:

Major Battle

For the first time in the Italian campaign, major Allied and German armored forces met on level ground to slug it out, as the great battle for the Anzio beachhead below Rome raged.

To the southeast, bloody mountain fighting continued, with the entrenched Nazis stubbornly resisting advancing U. S. and French soldiers, crawling through fierce machine-gun and mortar fire to root enemy units out of deeply dug defenses.

Determined to fight a major battle in Italy far below the Po river valley in the north, the Nazis poured thousands of troops in the Anzio region, and action rose in tempo after the enemy carefully probed Allied lines for weak points.

Crowded into an area about 30 miles long and 12 miles inland, Allied forces swung into the attacking enemy at close quarters, while their air forces roamed over German positions and communication lines, blasting troop concentrations and supply deliveries.

MEAT PRODUCTION:

Record Levels

Keeping well in line with government predictions of record meat production for 1944, January slaughter of hogs, cattle and sheep set all-time marks for the month.

Partly because of liquidations due to concern over the overall feed situation for the year, 1,141,081 cattle were butchered in January, along with 7,839,352 hogs and 1,932,987 sheep.

Although the government estimated that meat production would rise 8 per cent in 1944 to a record 25,000,000,000 pounds, civilian allocations were set at the 1943 level of 131 pounds of meat per person for the year, with the services, lend-lease and other U. S. agencies obtaining the increased output. Only if the latter's needs were cut, could civilians expect more meat, it was said.

DEMOBILIZATION:

Congressional Plan

Adequate financing of industry to switch to civilian production, and orderly disposal of war material to prevent upsetting the markets, were proposed by the senate's economic policy and planning committee for postwar America.

The committee's recommendations were embodied in a bill sponsored by Senators George (Ga.) and Murray (Mont.), calling for government purchase of all raw materials or processed goods or extension of advances, partial payments or loans upon contract cancellations.

Regarding the nation's $15,000,000,000 investment in war plants, the committee proposed their sale to private interests, but not if their use should over-expand production. The number of aircraft, aluminum, rubber, magnesium, ship, steel and pipeline plants retained for postwar defense output should depend upon the scope of such a program, the committee declared.

Precaution should be taken against flooding the markets with war goods and depressing prices and production generally, the committee said, and opportunity should be sought to sell such material abroad. Organization of a demobilization board to carry out the program was recommended.

SUBSIDIES:

Opposed in Congress

Although facing an expected presidential veto, the senate moved to join the house in outlawing government subsidy payments to reduce retail food costs.

Senate approval of Sen. John Bankhead's anti-subsidy bill was scheduled after rejection of Sen. Francis McNamara's amendment calling for the expenditure of $1,500,000,000 for subsidies this year, and Sen. Robert Taft's compromise proposal that the program be limited to $950,000,000.

Countering administration arguments that abolition of subsidies would threaten the whole anti-inflation program by leading to demands for wage raises to meet higher retail food costs, Senator Bankhead (Ala.) said that such subsidies would only save each family an average of 11 cents a day, and this at a time when incomes and savings are at record levels.

OLD TOPIC:

White-Collar Wages

Popular as a topic ever since the days of Charles Dickens' stringy Bob Cratchit, low wages for white-collar workers now have come under the consideration of a senate labor committee.

Regardless of general salary increases of 15 to 30 per cent for clerical workers and salesmen since 1941, current earnings of many groups of non-manufacturing employees remain relatively low, A. F. Hinrichs of the U. S. department of labor said.

Although a survey in small towns showed store clerks have received boosts of 15 to 25 per cent and bank tellers increases of 5 to 10 per cent since 1941, straight time earnings of many groups remain less than 50 cents an hour, Hinrichs said. This averages less than $24 for a 48-hour week, and earnings are even lower in some other occupations, Hinrichs asserted.

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC:

Gain in New Guinea

Joining hands near Saidor after more than a month of fighting through rugged jungle, Australian and American forces prepared to lunge northward toward remaining Japanese positions on New Guinea's eastern coast.

First Allied objective was the base of Madang, feeder point for the Japs' inland positions, then Wewak, oft-pounded air base from which the enemy has sent up planes to harass Aussie and U. S. forces operating on New Guinea.

On New Britain island to the east of New Guinea, U. S. air forces continued to smack at the major Jap air and supply base of Rabaul, and at the port of Kavieng on New Ireland to the northeast, also a center of feeder operations for barges stocking enemy strongholds in the surrounding area.

LET'S KEEP AMERICA -- AMERICAN

America—Your America—has become great and strong because of the indomitable spirit of its people. Through years of sweat and blood, hard working, free Americans have built an invincible nation—a nation which stands as a symbol to all freedom-loving men throughout the world. ★ Our boys are fighting to keep America American. They want to come back to the America they left, their homes, churches, schools, their service clubs, their friends and buddies. They want to come back to their jobs and take up where they left off—they want to be able to carve their own futures in their own way—unmolested. ★ To remind us all of these many things our boys are fighting for, the Kiwanis Club will, from time to time, publish in the interest of a Free America, messages which we hope will inspire men to Keep His America . . . American!

These Things We Hold:

that it is every free American's right to worship God in the manner he chooses and according to his own conscience and understanding.

that Free Speech and Freedom of the Press are foundation-stones of the democratic way of life, and should be defended against the onslaughts of those who might wish to abridge or destroy them.

that freedom of opportunity must be nurtured and preserved so that America's sons and daughters may continue to enjoy the right to achieve their ambitions, according to their wishes and capacities; that an individual's destiny is his own to shape and establish.

that America's children may continue to enjoy the parental love and wholesome happiness of the family, supplemented by freedom of education which admits the whole and undistorted truth about the world in which they live.

that America shall ever be the land of hope, the model of democracy . . . "The Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave."

SLED: The Russian army is using an improved sledge driven by an airplane propeller for its mobile machine gun corps. A machine gun is mounted behind armor plating.

BASEBALL: The American league baseball clubs will play 78 exhibition games in their spring circuit, according to tentative schedules. Traveling difficulties may curtail the program.

TOKENS: More ration tokens will be needed than was at first thought, OPA officials indicate. About 2,000,000 tokens should be ready for release February 27, and the OPA is having another 200,000,000 made as a reserve. This supply may be increased to 800,000,000, it was said. A larger token, about the size of a quarter, with a value of five points, is being considered.

JUST MISGUIDED

Heck—What were you and your wife quarreling about?
Peck—Well, she said a certain girl was beautiful, and I made the mistake of agreeing with her.

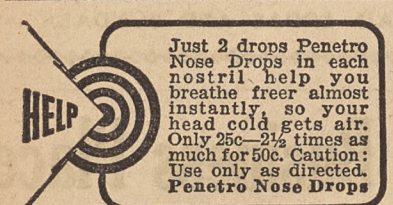

A neighbor, Jed Hill, said that if he had not snatched the bun out of the young woman's hand, she probably would have killed her husband.—Sanford (Ky.) Observer. Must have been her first batch!

Yes, What?

"I say, waiter, is this peach or apple pie?"
"Can't you tell by the taste?"
"No."
"Then what difference does it make?"

Open Season

The train came to a sudden stop, causing the passengers to bump. "What has happened, conductor?" cried a nervous old lady.
"Nothing much, we just ran over a cow."
"Was it on the track?"
"No," replied the conductor, "we chased it into a barn."

Voracious Ladybird
One ladybird will devour 40 green flies in an hour.

It costs about 12¢ an acre and takes only a few minutes to inoculate seed with NITRAGIN. Yet it frequently boosts yields of alfalfa, clover, soybeans, other legumes up to 50% and more. It increases feeding value of legume hay and pasture, helps build fertility. Tests prove it pays to inoculate every seedling of legumes regardless of nodules on roots of previous crops. NITRAGIN provides selected, tested strains of nitrogen-fixing bacteria. NITRAGIN is the oldest, most widely used inoculant—in the yellow can, at your seedsmen.

Luscious Desserts, Springlike Salads Please Appetites

Mold the salad and give it new variety and interest. Strips of red and green pepper on the white of the cottage cheese make this mold attractive, and the fresh vegetable salad in the center gives unusual contrast.

Changes of season with their myriad of new fruits and vegetables in season bring with them delightful changes in menus and perk up appetites, but before the new season begins there's apt to be dullness in menus that puts appetites in a rut. Let's resolve there be no such menu monotony in any home when there are different combinations of old favorites available.

Frequently just a small change in the menu can bring a chorus of cheers from the family. For example, try a crusty fruit bread quickly prepared or a luscious dessert, new and different salad or an unusual way of preparing a meat dish. Don't depart too radically from what's liked by the family, but do make a small change for that desired "something different."

There's nothing especially new in the ingredients for this salad, but they're in new combination—even to the touch of watercress in place of lettuce as background.

Cottage Cheese Salad.
(Serves 8)
1 package lemon-flavored gelatin
1 cup hot water
1 cup pineapple juice
Strips of green and red pepper
1 cup cottage cheese
½ teaspoon salt
Dash of cayenne

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add pineapple juice and water. Chill until slightly thickened. Decorate mold with strips of green and red pepper. Combine pineapple, cheese, salt and cayenne. Fold into thickened gelatin. Turn into ring mold. Chill until firm. Unmold. Fill center with mixed salad and garnish with segments of tomato and sprigs of watercress.

Here's an old favorite with a new twist:

Carrot Ring with Creamed Peas and Ham.
(Serves 6)
2 tablespoons butter or substitute
2 tablespoons flour
½ cup milk
¼ teaspoon salt
2 eggs, separated
2 cups grated carrot

Melt butter, blend in flour. Cook until slightly thickened, then add milk and salt. Stir until blended and thickened. Add beaten egg yolks and grated carrot. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into greased mold, set in a pan of hot water.

Good Combinations: Contrast in foods is an important factor in good menu building. Give your meat just the right vegetable and sauce and salad and the only complaint you will get is that your family doesn't have room for all they could eat.

Browned potatoes and brown gravy go with pot roast. Don't forget a tossed green salad. Dumplings are indicated with stew. Mustard pickles and molded fruit salad are perfect accompaniments.
Delicious corned beef brisket is good with cabbage wedges, boiled potatoes and mustard sauce.
Baked sweet potatoes are a must with Boston Butt. A dish of applesauce and colorful Harvard beets do the right thing for balance.

A shoulder roast of lamb needs the lightness of new potatoes, brown gravy and fresh wisps of asparagus.

water. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for an hour. Turn out on platter and fill with creamed leftover ham and peas.

*Fruited Drop Biscuits.
(Makes 18 biscuits)
2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
2 to 4 tablespoons shortening
6 tablespoons marmalade

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut or rub in shortening. Add enough milk to make thick batter, stirring only until flour is well moistened. Drop a spoonful of batter in greased muffin pan, add a teaspoonful of marmalade, top with another spoonful of biscuit batter and bake in a hot oven (450 degrees) 12 minutes.

*Pork Chops Supreme.
(Serves 4)
4 thick pork chops
1 green pepper
1 slice onion
4 crackers
Pinch of poultry seasoning
1 teaspoon salt
¾ teaspoon pepper
Milk

Grind together green pepper, onion, crackers and combine with other ingredients, using just enough milk to moisten. Place pork chops in baking pan and heap stuffing over top. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for an hour to an hour and a half.

Cherries make a colorful pie that will make a feast out of any meal. The pie pictured above is not just an ordinary cherry pie but one with a jellied custard filling resting underneath those cherries.

Old-Fashioned Pork Pie.
(Serves 4)
2 cups cooked pork, cubed
2 cups sliced cooking apples
3 tablespoons sugar
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ teaspoon cloves
½ recipe of plain pastry

Arrange pork and apples in layers in greased casserole. Sprinkle with sugar, nutmeg and cloves and top with plain pastry. Slash well and bake in a hot oven 10 minutes; reduce heat to moderate and continue baking for 30 minutes until apples are cooked.

Potatoburgers.
(Serves 6)
1 pound hamburger
2 cups coarsely grated raw potato
¼ cup onion, coarsely grated
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
½ cup fat

Combine all ingredients, mixing well. Shape into patties and fry in hot fat until well browned all over. "Can she bake a cherry pie?" the young man would ask of his bride-to-be. That pie is still good and you'll like this variation of the original theme:

*Cherry Custard Pie.
1 package cherry flavored gelatin
¼ teaspoon salt
1½ cups boiling water
2 eggs, separated
½ cup sugar
2 cups cherries, canned
1 baked pie shell

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add salt. Pour gradually over egg yolks which have been beaten with ½ cup of sugar. Mix well. Add 1 cup of berries to gelatin mixture. Chill until thickened, then pour into pie shell and top with remaining berries. Chill until firm. If desired top with meringue made of egg whites.

Keen Rivalry Between Weskit And Blouse, Worn With Suits

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

GAY little flatterers, that's what the new suits, done in the spring, 1944, manner, are! There is that about the soft dress-maker styling given to this season's suits, with their pert little boleros and other brief boxy types, and the very new collarless cardigan jackets, that makes one look young, no matter what one's birth certificate may say.

Then too, the current suit theme is made all the more intriguing in that the briefness and simplicity of the styling of these jaunty jackets offer such grand opportunity to the blouses, the weskits, the gilets and the vestees worn with them to "show off" the prettiness of their ruffles and the lure of their feminizing graces to the nth degree of allure. In fact, it is said that neckwear and blouse designers and producers are positively jubilant over the prospect of a record-breaking demand for fetching fashions in blouses, weskits and gilets prettied with jeweled buttons and fluffy-ruffle jabots, picturesque bow-ties and all the highlighted items you'll be finding in neckwear and accessory departments this season.

In a series of preview displays recently held in the Merchandise Mart of Chicago, showing "what's new" and important for spring, emphasis was definitely given to the short jacket and the cardigan-type suit, feminized with most alluring neckwear, blouses and weskits, of which the models pictured are typical. Note the collarless jacket worn with the three-piece suit of black Forstmann wool shown to the right. The checked surah weskit worn with it is a "last word" style that is scheduled to play a star role in the fashion set-up for the coming months. There's style news too, in the fact that the little collarless jacket of bolero persuasion, also the 33-inch coat which this lady of fashion carries over her arm, is lined with matching check surah.

Speaking of linings, over which much ado is being made this season, a startling new fashion development is that certain designers are lining black wool suits with gay gingham plaids, and the effect is charming. With this gaily lined suit glamour galore is expressed in accessory sets of hat, bag and gloves made of matching gingham.

It is an eloquent fashion story which the suit shown to the left has to tell, in regard to the contrast color effects for which a far-reaching vogue is predicted. This two-tone box coat suit flaunts a skirt done in bright blue Forstmann wool. The same fabric in a contrast color is used for the boxy jacket or coat that features an unusual slot seam treatment extending down from the left shoulder and up from the right hem. Here again the coat lining is matched to the print of the blouse.

The soft bow-tie fastening at the throat is a prevailing fashion and keeps growing in favor as the season advances.
The outstanding importance of striped silks, especially taffeta, for the blouse or weskit, also for accessory hat and bag sets is something you hold in mind when you seek new high-spot accents for your spring suit.
Neat bolero suits in navy, black or rich brown have long fitted sleeves with lingerie frills at the wrist that fall gracefully over the hand, with a very "frilly" frill of the same spreading out over the shoulders of the bolero and carrying on down the front of the blouse to the waistline. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Chic Rough Straw

In the early millinery showing a smart fashion-first for spring is the hat that is made of coarse shiny straw braid. The attractive hat shown at the top is a Harryson model which teams rough straw in a deep forest green with American beauty ribbon. It is designed to be worn with the center part, and frames the face in a new manner.

Cleverly manipulated black rough straw and black taffeta gives to the vogueish hat shown below an air of pleasing originality. This smart looking model from Suzanne et Roger is held on the head with taffeta ribbon that ties in bows on one side.

Bare-Back Dresses With Bolero Jackets

There's a new trend in fashions that style experts recognize as a coming feature of endless possibilities. It is that of the bare-back sundress which transforms into a conservative about-town costume, or to a pretty afternoon outfit or even an informal part frock via the magic of an extra little jacket or capelet or an ingenious scarf arrangement. The story of these "bare" fashions will unfold a tale of cunning camisole strap tops or novel halter-neck devices and so on, as the season advances. The bolero jacket is the standby cover-up now but later versatile ideas will follow one another. It is enough to know that this new trend is regarded by style experts as an up-and-coming fashion.

Frisled Pinafore Aprons

Serve as House Frocks

Aprons are creating a big sensation in the fashion field. Some of the frilled pinafore types are being worn as dainty house frocks. This clever adaptation of the youthful befrilled pinafore will be increasingly apparent when balmy spring and summer days arrive. There is no end to the number of distractingly pretty tea aprons and such. However, interest is just as keen for the practical-type aprons, such as for instance the apron for the woman who knits, that has a pocket huge enough to hold a sweater that is still in the process of knitting. There are also "Monsieur" and "Madam" aprons made of blue denim or muslin with large letters declaring ownership. They are just the thing for side-by-side garden work!

HOUSEHOLD TINTS

Remove all stains from table linens before putting them into the wash. This prevents their becoming permanent.

All new cooking utensils (if you find any) should be thoroughly greased and heated before using for the first time.

Preserve your metal costume jewelry with a quilted folder. This will prevent tarnishing and scratching and save time when you're hurrying to find your favorite piece.

Before discarding articles of clothing look at the zippers, buttons and snaps. If they are still good, cut them off and put them away to use again.

Don't make dust cloths out of that old sheet. Cut it down to make a cot sheet, crib sheet, or a pillowcase.

Lightly waxed woodwork cuts down cleaning. Rub spots that are handled often—banisters, areas around doorknobs and windows—with a thin coat of liquid wax.

TRY OVERNIGHT CARE FOR MISERABLE COLDS—the way grandma did. She used mutton suet she medicated herself to relieve colds' coughing and muscle aches. Now mothers just rub on Penetro. ## TRUK---And Two Years Ago

On Feb. 15, 1942, Singapore, the symbol of British might in the Far East, fell to the hordes of Hirohito.

From there the enemy avalanche poured down across the Dutch East Indies to the very gates of Australia. The combined strength of the British, the Dutch and ourselves was wholly inadequate to stem the tidal wave as it rolled over one island after another.

Those were black days. Many of us feared—and with good reason—that the Japs with such great natural resources in their control might be able to hold indefinitely the territory they had conquered.

Let us now turn to Feb. 17, 1944—just two years and two days after the surrender of Singapore. The American Pacific Fleet, built almost from scratch after the disaster of Pearl Harbor, is making an audacious attack on Truk—the very heart of Japan's Pacific defense.

Behind this mighty armada lay a long string of victories that have made this attack possible.

Few of those who understood the gravity of the situation in early 1942 could have dared to hope that just two years after Singapore we would be striking back not only at the outer rim of Japan's Pacific empire, but at its very core.

That we have been able to do this is a further proof that the courage and determination of free men to remain free is a more potent force than all the fanaticism and fury of our enemies.

We have risen from the depths of disaster and despair to fight our way back. There is still a hard road ahead, but we know that we are going in the right direction. Truk is one of the milestones along that road.

INVASION DAY

Indications are strong that the day for invasion of Hitler's inner bastions is rapidly approaching. The long anticipated zero hour is near at hand, when millions of Allied soldiers will strike at Hitler's fortress on the European coast, relieving the pressure on the Italian invasion troops or to be joined by them, and spear-heading the land attack directly on the Reich.

Some of the indications may be discussed publicly and some may not. The clearing of the Bay of Biscay is one of the latest manifestations of a nearly ready assault. There will be no room in the blue waters for merchantmen when the great invasion armada sails. Printing of "invasion money" is further evidence that preparations are nearly complete. The notes will be provided for our boys' use in both Germany and France. Final solemn proof is the announcement that over 1,500,000 men now civilians will be swept into the armed forces by the draft within the next six months—replacements for men who are ready now to play their part in the greatest invasion story in all history.

Every American regrets the need to pour our youth in an ever-thickening army onto the battle-grounds. But our greatest hope is that the Invasion Army, when it finally invades, will be so overwhelming in strength and number that the fight will be decisive from the start—that it will be abundantly supplied and supported with all the things it will need to make the job short, swift and final.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Christ Jesus" is the subject of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. This declaration from John is the Golden Text: "No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him."

"Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean," cried the leper to Jesus, according to a Lesson-Sermon selection from Matthew. "And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will, be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed." Luke's Gospel relates that when Jesus sent out his twelve disciples "to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick . . . they departed . . . preaching the gospel, and healing every where."

Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Jesus established what he said by demonstration, thus making his acts of higher importance than his words. He proved what he taught. This is the Principle of Christianity. Jesus proved the Principle, which heals the sick and casts out error, to be divine."

Early OPA
As long ago as 1314, the English parliament resorted to price fixing in wartime. During the war between England and Scotland, the price of a fat ox was set by law at $4, a cow at $3, a fat hog at 83 cents and a sheep at 29 cents. A couple of chickens brought two cents, a goose five cents and eggs were limited to one cent a dozen.

Arable land in Kent rented from six to 12 cents an acre, pasture at two cents and meadowland from 8 to 20 cents.

Two centuries later ale sold for four cents a gallon and a laborer was paid from five to seven cents a day. By the reign of Elizabeth price levels had risen substantially. A country house rented for $1 to $1.50 a year and could be bought for $25 or $30. Wheat was 25 cents a bushel, an ox $6.50. Claret sold for five cents a quart and red port for six cents. Wages had gone up too. A laborer was paid 8 to 12 cents a day.

Lock in Flavor
Close spice boxes tightly to lock in their lusty flavor. Keep them cool and dry. Snap down the baking powder lid snugly so the next cake will be light and airy. Give extract tops an extra twist and keep them in a dark spot if they're not in dark glass. Be sure a dry spoon conveys spice and baking powder to the sifter.

New Discoveries Mark Southeast as Oil Area
Production of oil from a two-mile-deep well in the Florida Everglades adds a new page to a new chapter of the romance of petroleum.

The new chapter concerns commercial oil production in the Gulf states east of the Mississippi river. It began late in 1939 with the opening of the first well in Mississippi, near Yazoo City.

Geologists for years had been aware that the oil-producing strata of Arkansas and Louisiana are closely resembled in formation and age by sections underlying Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and Florida.

Since 1939 additional Yazoo wells have lifted Mississippi to large-scale production. Florida's first well now adds reality to the scientists' vision of an important southeastern petroleum field.

Harbinger of a new kind of Florida boom, the man-made hole in the swamp land northwest of Miami is the first producing well, not in Florida alone, but anywhere within 170 miles of the nation's Atlantic coast. Florida, by becoming the 25th oil well state, gives oil states a national majority.

Heavy Eaters
The average adult rat, one weighing more than a pound, eats in one year about half as much as a laying hen does.

W.N.U. FEATURES

THE STORY THUS FAR: Lieut. Col. Frank Kurtz, pilot of the Flying Fortress known as "The Swallow," which escaped from Clark Field, tells of that fatal day when the Japs struck in the Philippines. Old 99, another Fortress, is struck down before it can get off the ground. The field is littered with the skeletons of U. S. planes. Buzz Wagner, air ace, is chased by Japs in his P-40. He meets Lieut. Russ Church and together they bomb a Jap field. Church fails to return. Other pilots are given their targets, including Colin Kelly. Kelly's plane settles for a Jap battleship, but the plane is ablaze. Eight bale out. Kelly bales out but is so close to the ground he never had a chance.

CHAPTER V

"Of course when I heard all this I also heard about the whopping big target he'd hit and sunk. But I didn't think much of this at the time, and I don't think Colin did either.

"If I know the boy, and I think I do, after he saw his oxygen system was on fire, and had given orders for the other guys to jump, and was sitting there hanging back on his stick and fighting his rudder in order to give them a chance to do it, he wasn't thinking about how many gross tons that Japanese ship displaced, but about his parents and Marian and little Corkie. And later when he was trying to crawl out of the upper escape hatch before his clothes caught on fire, it was the same, and still later, when he cleared the hatch but saw the ground coming up at him, too close and too fast for his chute ever to have a chance to crack open, I don't think he was worrying about how big his posthumous medal was going to be, but only worrying about Marian and Corkie.

"A little later in the afternoon one of our fighters came in and began to circle the field, fluttering like a wounded bird. I could see it was something serious—I guessed even then an all-out effort was being made, so I gave him the green light to come in and land. He began to make passes at the field, cutting his throttle to pick out the bomb craters, marked by a maze of red flags we'd put up. But each time he'd throttle back his left wing would drop and he'd have to gun her again, making a slow climbing circle up off the field.

"It began to get me. 'Come on, son, come on, put it down, before we get into trouble.' On the last trial he gunned it, came around, and then tried to pull up straight, but too late. Teetering down the field, he caught one wing on one of our slightly damaged Fortresses, tearing it off, and then himself cartwheeled off into the trees—killing a sergeant who had been working on a plane back there. The pilot wasn't hurt much himself, but one more of our precious few P-40's was gone.

"But, following orders, I was still giving the Fortresses the red light to stay in the air, and I began to worry about this. Maybe orders had been issued to bring them in, but someone had failed to notify me. Some of them would circle for a while, and then would head on back for Del Monte, more than six hundred miles away, while they still had enough gas to get there.

"Finally old Jim Connally said the hell with it, and came on in without my giving him any light at all. He needed more gas to get back to Mindanao and couldn't perch up there all day, and a little after this the Colonel said I could give the others the green light to come in and gas up, although any hour, any minute, we were expecting the Japs back. He wanted to save those remaining Forts at any cost.

"We got out of bed just as dawn was breaking and, folding our sheets inside our brown blankets so no white would show, stuffed them under the khaki coats—we didn't want anything that would indicate on a Jap recon picture that we were now sleeping in that field. The Japs were reconing the hell out of the place with high-altitude cameras, two or three times daily.

"I spent the next day in the tower and it was much like the first, except it was plainer and plainer that we would have to abandon Clark.

"So the next morning the evacuation began. They gave me one of the planes they had patched up, and Al Mueller and I made two trips back and forth to Del Monte loaded down with members of the ground crews who were to service our planes at Del Monte.

"I'll never forget my last trip out. It was at night of course—it wasn't safe to leave a plane on the ground by day at Clark any more. We were taking off at three in the morning in order to be through the danger zone by dawn, and I'd had almost no sleep at all. But while they were warming the motors they came running to me with the news that there was a pretty bad leak in my fuel line. So what in hell to do? I could wait while they ripped a fuel line from one of the semi-wrecked Forts standing around on the field, and installed it in mine. But by then it would be well after dawn, and if we encountered Jap fighters, there I'd be, with sergeants stuffed into every corner of the plane, so that we wouldn't have room to swivel a machine gun in our own defense.

"Or we could tape up our leaky line, get the hell out of there in the darkness, and pray the leak didn't get worse or a hot exhaust stack didn't set it off in mid-air. We chanced it, and made it all right, but it turned out to be my last trip, because the next day the Japs came back and put out of commission what was left of Clark Field.

"I got the story from Eddie Oliver, who had been my navigator on Old 99—and I was the only survivor of the entire crew—when he got down to Del Monte a few days later.

"The Japs, having reconed Clark Field thoroughly, came over all ready for business. Some guy had carelessly left a pillow exposed in the cornfield, so they knew we'd been sleeping there. They blew hell out of it with their high-altitude stuff, and didn't touch the regular flying field, which they'd put out in the first day's raid. Then their fighters came over and with incendiaries set fire to the nipa shacks which had been our quarters. In them was everything I owned, including the watches, diaries, and wallets which had belonged to the crew of Old 99.

"It was now hopeless to operate from Clark, everyone saw. Anyway, the Japs had landed light tanks on the coast at Apari, so five hundred rifles were issued to what ground personnel we had left there and they went off with infantry units to chase them out if they could. The poor devils ended up on Bataan.

"So here we were now at Del Monte, about fifteen Fortresses in all, but patched up and in such bad shape that we couldn't even fly. We didn't laugh because I wanted to work without pay—he couldn't have been nicer. He showed me huge piles of applications for aviation-cadet assignments in the Air Corps that were coming in. I could help, he explained, by classifying and filing these, getting them in their proper groups, help speed up the stream of reinforcements which the boys out East would need so badly—we didn't dream how badly."

"We needed everything," said Frank. "Ground crews, pilots, copilots. And to make it worse, our own group commander, Colonel Eubank, had been hurt and was in a Manila hospital.

"We were getting more and more uneasy. Here we were, comfortable in this beautiful field. It was as peaceful as Clark Field had been before December eighth. We'd fled from Clark down here to Mindanao, and even as we were arriving the Japs were putting troops ashore at the southern tip of this same island, where thirty thousand Japanese 'farmers' had taken over the city of Davao on the first day.

"But here at Del Monte we saw people who didn't seem to know a war was on. The only military around was some kind of a transportation outfit. The first day we were there I got hold of a couple of privates and gave them orders to dim out the headlights of every car—no matter whose—that approached the field. But the transportation officer decided he'd stop all that. It seemed the boys, carrying out my orders, had even stopped a staff car, and the transportation officer explained that they needed more light.

"Well, our planes were on that field, and I knew the Japs were headed down the coast and would be here soon enough anyway, and I didn't want to attract them any sooner than necessary.

"But before they did come, the old 19th Bombardment Group—or what was left of it—got in some mighty hard licks at them. For instance, there was the Le Gaspé Bay mission. Our Intelligence reported a big concentration of Jap ships moving south toward us down the coast of Luzon. Of course that meant the handwriting on the wall for us, particularly if one was a carrier with Zeros which would presently be in range of us and could strafe us on the ground—remember we hadn't a single American fighter within five hundred miles.

"Sure enough, Intelligence presently reported that they thought one of this concentration was a carrier, and now they were just off Le Gaspé. It was up to us to take off and do what we could. We'd been working like hell to get the planes in shape, and finally had six which we thought could complete the mission and get home. But remember Old 99 was back on Clark, and I was a planeless pilot. So it ought to be Harry's story—he was navigator on Jack Adams' plane."

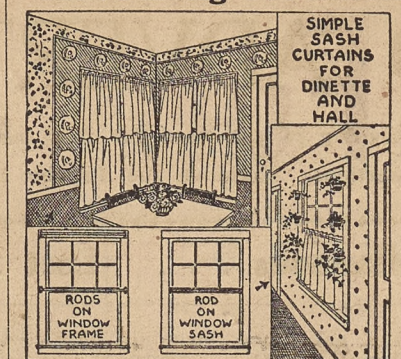

"Well," said Harry Schrieber, the navigator, "it was like this. The six of us were to start at ten o'clock, and Jim Connally rolled out first, and got a flat tire right on the runway—throwing one wing into the ground and crumpling it. That left five, and it wasn't so good, because there is safety in numbers in Fortresses—the more of them that go over a target together, the more fire power you can bring to bear against the Zeros, and the more Forts will get back home.

"But anyway we started. The pilots were Shorty Wheelless, Pease, Lee Coats, Vandevanter, and of course Jack Adams—I was his navigator.

"We are flying in formation to our agreed rendezvous, in case we got lost in heavy weather—a point thirty-five miles due west of our target—and we are due to be there in two hours and fifteen minutes after our start.

Sash Curtains That Have Long Tradition

WHEN we think of the type of curtains used in Early Colonial cottages, crisp frills and ruffles usually come to mind. It is true that ruffled curtains were used in Colonial times but the curtains of the first homes in the New World were of the casement or sash variety. We must remember that as late as the discovery of America glass windows were rare. They were of the casement type with tiny diamond-shaped pieces held together with lead. Simple straight curtains to give privacy were the next logical development.

Frills and larger panes of glass came later but sash curtains were also used with these new windows. They are also being used with good effect today for rooms where an informal atmosphere is needed.

NOTE—This is the first of a series on modern adaptations of period curtain fashions. There is another interesting treatment of a sash-curtained window in BOOK 1, and the method of lining casement draw curtains is illustrated in BOOK 8 of the series of 10 booklets on sewing for the home. Price of booklets is 15 cents each. Order direct from:

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

Normally U. S. motorists needed 30 to 35 million new replacement tires a year. In 1942 and 1943 combined, only about 17 million tires will have reached vehicle owners through rationing offices.

Korozeal is "Plasticized polyvinyl chloride," a B. F. Goodrich rubber-like material that before the war was used in more than 300 different products. Korozeal has now gone to war.

Wheel alignment means much to tire mileage these days, with so many old cars in service. Frequent checking of camber and toe-in in front wheels will prove a rubber and mileage saver.

Pianist Writes
Newest Experience

Miss Luise Errol, pianist, writes to her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Earl Rosenberg, that she had attended the chamber music festival at the University of Georgia, at Athens, and recently had accompanied the celebrated violinist, Nathan Milstein, in several concerts given by the violinist in camps and hospitals.

Milstein's regular accompanist was obliged to leave, after their concert at Shorter college where Miss Errol is a member of the faculty, and she took over as substitute in the camp concerts. She was praised by the dean and Milstein for her perfection and fineness of tone.

Miss Errol is giving concerts this season in southern cities, in addition to her college work.

PARENTS MEET
FOR STUDY GROUP

There will be a study group for parents of pre-school and primary grade children the first and third Mondays of each month at 7:30 p.m. at the Mother Goose school. Mrs. M. W. Bruce led the first discussion last Monday evening. Plans are being made to have guest speakers from time to time. A new arrangement, definite and everyone expects to profit greatly by attending the groups of the spring season. Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

BIRTHS

The scenes were announced by Virginia Davidson. The play was enthusiastically received by those present, this being the league's initial performance. Another similar program is being formed to be presented after Easter.

RETURNS FROM VISIT

Mrs. Kenneth Shaw and her daughter returned to their home, 5047 Niagara, last week from an eight-week sojourn in Seattle. Mrs. Shaw's husband, serving in the U. S. navy, was here in Dec. on leave from the Aleutian islands.

The family left shortly after for Seattle. Mr. Shaw is now in active service in the theatre of war.

YOUNG ORGANIST OF POINT LOMA

Edward Maze, 18-year-old organist, made his concert debut in La Jolla this week when he presented "Fugue in E Minor" (Bach); the first movement of Mendelssohn's "Sonata in F Minor," and other organ classics. The young organist, a recent graduate of Pt. Loma high school, plans to devote himself to a professional career.

VISITING PARENTS

Mrs. F. A. Gunner (Marie Jean Davis) few down from San Francisco with her young son, recently to spend a month visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Davis, 4955 Del Monte, while her husband, Capt. Gunner, U.S.M.C., is overseas.

Several courtesies are being arranged for Mrs. Gunner during her stay. She will leave for the north sometime in March to await her husband's return, where they have leased a home.

Services for
Mrs. Anderson

Services for Mrs. Anna S. Anderson, 76, who passed away Tuesday in the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morlin, 4621 Del Monte, were conducted Friday morning at Bonham Brothers mortuary. Cremation followed.

Mrs. Anderson, a native of Halmstad, Sweden, had resided in San Diego 22 years. In the United States 61 years. She is survived by Otha Underwood, Roy J. Anderson, William E. Anderson, George Anderson, Lillian Morlin, Elma Sharp, Agnes Tallmadge and Ruby G. Smith. Other survivors are 17 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Spoilage Clinic on Home Canned Foods

Dr. Alex M. Lessem, city and county director of public health, asks that those having home canned or dehydrated foods that show signs of spoilage to leave them before March 3rd with Edwin A. Watkins, chief of the food sanitation division, San Diego city health department, room 0148, Civic Center, or at the Agricultural Extension Service Farm Laboratory office at 865 State st.

It is urgent that those submitting jars include a label supplying the following information: name; address; name of food; method of canning in detail; directions followed; date of canning; where stored; and why you think it has spoiled. This will enable a report to be made to those donating on how to prevent spoilage in the future. These examples will be the subject of a spoilage clinic to be held Saturday, March 11, from 9:30 to 3:30 in the San Diego County Schools Service bldg. 1252 University ave.

Dolphine Dawson, county home demonstration agent for the state department of agriculture, is cooperating by arranging for supplementary exhibits to illustrate further problems in home canned, dried, pickled, salted, and brined products and in jelly and jam.

Mrs. Bessie Harrison has returned from a very pleasant visit "down south." She spent three months in Montgomery, Ala., as the house guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Howell, and Lt. Howell, who is stationed at Maxwell field.

George McKeon, 4611 Santa Cruz ave., was a visitor to Los Angeles and Hollywood the first of the week, going north to meet George E. Kennedy, advertising executive and Montana rancher. The two men were buddies in high school in their boyhood days in Minnesota.

Dr. and Mrs. Earl Rosenberg entertained as their house guests last week, Dr. Rosenberg's sister, Mrs. Joseph Olsson of Lexington, Neb., and her son, Dr. Dean Spear of Chicago. Dr. Spear is an associate of the well known eye specialist, Dr. Gifford at the Chicago hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Schneider and their daughter, Mrs. Verne Kirkman, have moved back to the beach after residing in San Diego and the back country. They are making their temporary home at 2120 Froude while house-hunting. Mrs. Schneider is past oracle of Royal Neighbors.

Mrs. J. T. Smith, 4869 Santa Monica, is now recovering from an illness of the past two weeks. A severe cold which developed into pneumonia caused anxiety in the Smith family.

The Red Cross
In Ocean Beach

By ONA E. PITCOCK

Our boys in the hospital had a pleasant surprise last cookie day. The Sacajawea Girl Scouts of Trinity sent them 28 dozen cookies and a box of games and puzzles by way of the Ocean Beach center. Ocean Beach women sent in 14 boxes. Miss Nye of "Camp and Hospital" sent us a letter saying it was so enjoyed by the boys. They feel it is a personal gift to them and eat every last crumb. She thinks it a wonderful project.

The women of Ocean Beach are doing a wonderful service for our boys. All deserve praise. This week I want to mention some of our knitters especially. Mrs. Oberhellman, Mrs. Wallin, Mrs. Roshon, Mrs. Port, Mrs. Bodindeck and Mrs. Wilson Chamberlain. These women make beautiful sweaters and scarfs. Mrs. Elmer Gahlbeck and Mrs. A. C. Knecht also deserve special mention. All their work is beautifully done.

Azur Vista now has a community hall and last week had afternoon tea at which several Red Cross leaders were present. The housing unit will have two meetings, one on Thursday, Feb. 24th at 2:30 p.m. and the other Thursday, March 2nd at 2:30 p.m. They will elect committees and map out work for the future. They are organizing an American Red Cross home nursing class which will start Wednesday, Feb. 23 and will meet twice a week on Wednesday and Friday from 10 until 12 noon. All residents of Sunset Cliffs and Ocean Beach are welcome to enroll. The instructor will be Mrs. June Rule, R.N. Mrs. Rule instructed a class at Ocean Beach elementary school and won the love of everyone attending.

Will everyone who qualifies please go to the blood donor center at 446 W. Beach st. in San Diego and give blood. It will save a life and is so badly needed. We are back in our quota. It may be the life of one of your beloved it saves.

Don't forget we want aprons and pot-holders at the Red Cross center. Mrs. Heidbrink has already contributed from her ladies and will have more within two weeks. Remember that Tuesday is cookie day.

Everything you ladies do for Red Cross is greatly appreciated. It may be a little trouble and change your plans a little but this is war and the price of Victory is sacrifice.

U.S.O. Workers
Receive New Pins

The Ocean Beach U.S.O. formal Valentine dance held Saturday night, Feb. 19, was attended by well over 200 service men and the junior hostesses in their colorful formal made a very pretty picture. The ice cream was donated by the Carnation Milk Co. and the other refreshments by the citizens of Ocean Beach. The following hostesses received pins:

Fifty hours voluntary service: Gold pins, Loretta Haggerty, Dolle Malcolm, Eileen Samson, Inez Hussong, Betty Ellison, Hazel Florin; 100 hours voluntary service: Silver pins, Mrs. Evelyn Bitzer, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, Mrs. Georgia Brock.

Ocean Beach women who are willing and can give a few hours service each week to help keep the club rooms open will be appreciated. Please contact the U.S.O. at 5017 Newport.

Cookies, cakes and doughnuts are urgently needed any time during the week.

High 6th Students to Mrs. Gertrude Angert, who recently sold her home on Camulos st. to Mr. and Mrs. Kinney, is now making her home with Mrs. Mary J. Anson, 4319 Montalvo st.

Mrs. William L. Harris, of Pasadena, was here during the week visiting her son, Rev. Philip Harris, vicar of Trinity Episcopal church.

Mrs. Janie Butts, mother of Mrs. R. L. Dewees, 4631 Pescadero, has been quite ill the past week.

Mrs. George Kyle, 4677 Santa Monica, submitted to an operation recently and is convalescing nicely at her home. Mrs. Kyle has been a faithful war worker at the aircraft plant and is anxious to return.

"Willie" Van Gessel celebrated her 10th birthday Feb. 15 as host-ess to 14 girls and boys of the neighborhood being invited to the Van Gessel home, 4963 Long Branch ave., in the late afternoon. Three birthday cakes, ice cream and other goodies were enjoyed by the youngsters.
